

Invitation to nominate for the UKCPA Lifetime Achievement Award 2017

The United Kingdom Clinical Pharmacy Association is proud to invite nominations for the UKCPA Lifetime Achievement Award 2017. This prestigious award, now in its tenth year, aims to recognise outstanding contributions to clinical pharmacy practice.

The adjudication panel will be particularly keen to reward long term achievements in developing and promoting clinical pharmacy, innovation, research and development, publication and dissemination of good practice, and peer recognition.

Nomination process

Nominees should be proposed and seconded by members of the UKCPA. Nominations should detail the nominee's name and the reasons for the nomination in no more than 500 words. Nominees do not need to be members of the Association.

All nominations should be submitted to the UKCPA office for consideration by 16th September 2017.

Award winner

The winner will be notified personally by the Chair of UKCPA and invited to attend the Association's Conference in November 2017 as our guest.

It is customary that the winner makes a short acceptance speech during the presentation of the award at the conference dinner, highlighting their experiences and inspiring fellow practitioners to achieve great things in their careers.

Previous award winners

2016 (2 awards) Duncan McRobbie, Principal Pharmacist, Clinical Services, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust ; and Professor Mike Scott, Head of Pharmacy & Medicines Management, Northern Health & Social Care Trust, Pharmacy & Medicines Management Centre, Antrim Area Hospital and Director, Northern Ireland Medicines Optimisation Innovation Centre

2015 (2 awards) Dr David Cousins, Head of Patient Safety, Healthcare at Home; and Laurence Goldberg, Pharmaceutical Consultant, LA Goldberg Ltd

2014 Graham Davies, Professor of Clinical Pharmacy & Therapeutics at King's College London and Head of Programmes for the Joint Programmes Board

2013 Professor Ian Bates, Chair of Pharmacy Education and Head of Educational Development at the UCL School of Pharmacy

The award is not limited to one recipient per year but will not necessarily be given every year; it is up to the discretion of the UKCPA adjudicating team whether any of the nominees should receive the award.
